From the Captain's Chair

Captain's Logbook, Seventh Entry: June 17, 2009

Avast Laddie's, we be 8 months into this voyage of discovery and it seems we be learning all the time. From talking to the other Captains and the fine written word sent daily, we sail on with hopes of improving and inspiring this fleet day by day. Perhaps ye be having trouble reading between the lines sometimes, but this Crew, elected by you in true Pirate democracy, seeks out ways to make this ship we call the Chicago Parrothead Club sail smoothly on its' course with as few storms and waves as possible, while providing the best possible options for pillage and plunder with this mischievous crowd we call phamily. As a phamily, we have grown to know our members sometimes truer than our own blood. Cheers for supporting each other in times of need as we suffer losses along the way, lend a hand to each other as we do for strangers, and pick each other up with a hug and a pint and phriendly face.

As we turn our face to the sun and smile, we know the tide will come, the ship will catch the breeze and sail on, and working together, we come together again to party with a purpose.....as family.

It is better to be lost and know it, than to be certain about where you are and not be there.... -Olde Saying

Environmental Project

We are looking for someone who has a passion for doing stuff to benefit the Environment to head up an Environmental Project (and we don't mean weeding your backyard). Maybe your passionate about cleaning up the Chicago River, pulling Buckthorn at the Morton Arboretum or feeding the pigeons in Grant Park.

Whatever it is, let the Pirate Hood know:

(todd@chicagoparrotheads.com) and you might have access to our roughly 200 members whom you can solicit for help.
